

OregonWest Excursions 2008 Calendar!

Happy Holidays Everyone! I just returned from our NTA (National Tour Association Conference) and have to say I am getting excited about our upcoming season.... I think we have some great things planned for you this year..... Take care hope to see you all soon!

February - Snow Train Sacramento to Reno - Step aboard the Reno Snow Train and enjoy the beautiful scenery in comfort. Historical narration, strolling minstrels and a special Piano Lounge Car provide on-board entertainment. Visit "Old Sacramento" this 28-acre state historic park is a must-see destination which features some of the region's best restaurants, quirky shops and museums. See the enclosed flyer.

April - Charleston, Savannah & The Golden Isles of Georgia - Your #2 request.... Genteel, gracious, historic, beautiful... These are just a few of the words that come to mind when we think of these places... Join us as we visit historic cities, plantations, the low country, Islands and more...

May - Spring in Branson - Enjoy the Ozarks as they burst into colors.... We'll be just in time for Silver Dollar City's annual festival..... not to mention all the wonderful shows that this midwest city is famous for!

May - Fly A-Way Mystery Tour - Time for another mystery! This is one beautiful destination..... can't wait to share it with you!..... love a good mystery!

June - NE Oregon Trail - One of my personal favorites... Pendleton, Joseph, Baker City and Bend! Breathtaking beauty and diversity. An area steeped in history stretching from the foot of the Blue Mountains to the heights of the Wallowa's to the feet of "The Guardian of the Valley". See the wonders that Oregon is famous for!

June - Motor Coach Mystery Tour - It has been a while sense we have went on a motor coach mystery tour.... It is hard to find a place close to home that is new..... but I think we found one.... We'll see all you adventuresome folks in June!

July 4th - Tall Ships Festival - See the beautiful tall ships in Tacoma... Washington's finest example of a city truly rejuvenated. Move over Seattle! It has seen the "boom & bust" like many Western cities, but with a great spirit has recently lived up to the name, City of Destiny.....

July - Canadian Rockies by Rail - What a wonderful tour... Many of you asked if we would do this one again! Hear it is..... you can see all the spectacular photos on the website www.orwest.com .

August - Fantasy Cruise - This is another one that everyone said we had to do again..... Jeff and his crew are the best.... all you have to do is sit back and enjoy the scenery.... San Juan Islands and beyond.....

August - Whistler/Vancouver BC - Amidst the spectacular Coast Mountains of Western Canada, lies Whistler. Explore the pedestrian-only pathways of Whistler Village leading to intriguing shops, charming boutiques and sunny sidewalk cafes. Next one of the world's most spectacular cities, Vancouver BC. Explore Vancouver's dazzling downtown edged around its idyllic waterfront are fine beaches, a dynamic port and a magnificent swath of parkland, not to mention the mirror-fronted skyscrapers that look across Burrard Inlet and its bustling harbor.

September - South Dakota - Your #1 Request..... many of you said this was such a great tour, you would do it again! Filled with sky-piercing granite peaks, and America's most famous mountain, Mount Rushmore and the mountain sized Crazy Horse Memorial... the eerie landscapes of the Badlands and unparalleled scenic beauty. Don't miss this one!

September - The Great San Francisco Wine Escape - Wine Country isn't just about wine, it's about lifestyle, history, gardens, beautiful estates, and fabulous food... Let's go! We're headed to everyone's favorite city... you know, the "city by the bay"... San Francisco!

October - Heart of Texas - San Antonio, Austin & The Hill Country - Another Top Request... San Antonio... tucked away 20 feet below street level, lies the jewel of San Antonio the Paseo del Rio. Better known as the "River Walk". Cobblestone paths border both sides of the San Antonio River as it winds its way through the business district. Quiet and park-like in some stretches, while other areas are full of activity with European style sidewalk cafes, specialty boutiques, nightclubs, fabulous restaurants and plenty to do... Tour the Alamo, visit the Hill Country... one of the most beautiful and diverse regions in the country, LBJ Ranch tour & tram ride.... still a working ranch for over a century, Austin... an exciting day where we'll visit the Texas State Capitol. And Much More... See you all in San Antonio!

December - Leavenworth - Imagine a Bavarian village twinkling with Christmas lights & snow draped mountains..... Imagine sitting by a warm fire sipping hot drinks listening to Christmas Carols..... Imagine a horse-drawn country sleigh ride through the snow..... Imagine quaint shops filled with unique gifts, bakeries and confectioners..... These are just "a few of our favorite things"..... Come and join the fun on one of our best loved tours.....

December - Grand Ole Opry Christmas - This one is still in the "concept" stages right now I would love to hear your input!

December - Christmas Party - Celebrate the beauty and joy of Christmas... A simply wonderful afternoon and evening spent with friends and family.

We look forward to traveling with you in 2008!
